

Naming PDF Documents

When creating PDF documents to be uploaded to the electronic case filing system, please create filenames that do not include spaces. Documents with spaces in the filenames can create broken links that reference the documents. In the Notice of Electronic Filing and in the PACER system, court staff and court customers may receive "internal error" messages when trying to access the document.